

Zeke's Adventures in Alphabetland

Coloring Book #2

created by Nathaniel P. Jensen

Thank you to the original Kickstarter contributors!!

Greetings!

This coloring book is a bonus from my illustration process. These ink images will be printed onto watercolor paper and painted.

Please note, this is a process step to review in print form the work completed thus far. Layout/content of the final book will be different than the coloring book format presented here.

You can get a behind the scenes look at the creation of this book at

This is a 25 year project. I first began imagining the story back in 1991 at the beginning of my freelance career as an artist. It has been on and off the shelf over the years growing and changing as I pursued work as a muralist, an animator (Waking Life and A Scanner Darkly", as an editorial illustrator and as a fine artist.

After finishing illustrations on my 25th children's book, I decided to commit my time to completing my own. I ran a successful Kickstarter campaign in September 2016 that got my pencil flying.

I hope you will enjoy this book! I look forward to sharing the full story with you and generations to come!
